Provenance

Martin C. Forrester commissioned this painting directly from the artist, Victor Mideros Almeida, after the two met in 1963, and it has remained part of the Forrester family collection ever since. It is now offered for sale through BelemK Gallery, the collection Martin began and did not live to complete before his passing in 2024. See the gallery's "Our Story" and Collection Provenance Statement for the fuller history.

Attestation

To the best of the gallery's knowledge, based on the signature present on the work and its documented history within the Forrester family collection, this is a one-of-a-kind original painting by the above-named artist. This certificate documents the gallery's representation of the piece as described above. It is not a substitute for an independent professional appraisal, and the listed price is provisional pending one.
